Raising a concern/complaint

If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, Friern Barnet School encourages an informal resolution in the first instance. This can be undertaken by raising the concern or complaint in person, by telephone or in writing to the Head Teacher or Exams Officer..

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to Leoni Bunn, Exams Officer.. Formal complaints will be logged and acknowledged within 14 working days..

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must contact the Head Teacher in writing (letter or email), in person or by telephone, describing the complaint and/or the reason they remain dissatisfied with the schools' response..

How a formal complaint is investigated

The Head Teacher or designated member of staff who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no interest in the outcome will investigate the matter and will let the complainant know in writing the outcome and any action to be taken.

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within 21 working days..

Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

To submit an appeal, candidates (or parents/carers) must ask for it to be considered by the Complaints Panel of the School's Governing Body. This must be done in writing to the school..

Appeals will be logged and acknowledged within 14 working days..

The appeal will be referred to the School's Governing Body, consisting of 3 Governors who have no prior knowledge of the complaint..

It will be the responsibility of Chair of Governors to inform the appellant of the final conclusion in accordance with the internal appeals procedure.

Additional details on the internal appeals process:

Not applicable.
