

Key Stage 4 News Bulletin

Spring Term 1 2026

Dear Parent/Carer

It has been a busy and successful half term for Year 10, with students making the most of a wide range of opportunities both inside and outside the classroom.

A key focus has been securing work experience placements for April. This is an important step in helping students prepare for the world of work and consider future career pathways. Well done to those who have already submitted their forms — we appreciate your organisation and commitment.

Students have also taken part in a number of enrichment activities this half term. Our Religious Studies group visited St Paul's Cathedral to support their learning, while Drama students attended the Lyric Theatre in Hammersmith. Students also attended a Dance workshop, giving students the chance to develop their skills and work creatively together.

In PSHE, lessons have focused on healthy relationships. Students have explored topics such as respect, communication and boundaries, helping to support their personal development and wellbeing.

Thank you to all parents and carers who attended Parents' Evening. These conversations are invaluable in supporting student progress and strengthening the partnership between home and school.

We are proud of the positive attitude and engagement shown by our students this half term and look forward to another successful term ahead.

Mrs S Sacramento
Head of Year 10

Celebration Assembly

Key Stage 4 News Bulletin Spring Term 1

Dear Parent/Carer

We have had another busy half term with many college applications being filled out!

Year 11 have been working very hard and we are on the countdown until the GCSEs! We have another set of mocks after the half term for 3 days. These will just be the core exams, make sure to take advantage of online resources that support student's recall, such as; <https://senecalearning.com/en-GB/> and <https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/levels/z98jmp3>.

If students prefer to have books, revision guides and workbooks can be purchased from Student Services. If your son or daughter is struggling with exam anxiety, please encourage them to speak to myself or a trusted adult. Next term is only 5 weeks, so it will fly by!

Prom tickets and yearbooks are now on sale on ParentPay, so please get you your child's space/FBS memory secure to avoid disappointment.

Wishing you all a restful break, and hopefully the sunshine will return soon!

Ms H Kane

Head of Year 11
