

Privacy Notice (How we use workforce information)

The categories of school information that we process

These include:

- personal information (such as name, employee or teacher number, national insurance number)
- characteristics information (such as gender, age, ethnic group)
- contract information (such as start date, hours worked, post, roles and salary information)
- work absence information (such as number of absences and reasons)
- qualifications and records of relevant professional development (and, where relevant, subjects taught)
- information required for payroll purposes
- appraisal and performance records
- emergency contact details
- pre-employment information (including references, application forms, ID evidence, DBS information)

In addition, we may process the following “special category information”

- relevant health or medical information (such as in respect of absences)
- trade union membership
- race, ethnicity, or religious beliefs, sexual orientation

These lists are not exhaustive.

Why we collect and use workforce information

We use workforce data to:

- enable individuals to be paid
- enable safe recruitment and compliance with associated responsibilities
- enable and support performance management
- inform the development of recruitment and retention policies
- enable the development of a comprehensive picture of the workforce and how it is deployed
- enable equalities monitoring and compliance with equalities duties
- enable communication between school and the employee
- to ensure safeguarding procedures are adhered to

Our legal bases for processing workforce information

Under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the legal basis / bases we rely on for processing personal information for general purposes are:

- for the purposes of performance of a contract (e.g. contracts of employment, contracts for services etc)
- Where processing is necessary for compliance with legal obligations of the Governing Body (e.g. including but not limited to legal obligations under the Education Act 2002; Education Act 2005, the School Staffing Regulations 2009; the Employment Rights Act 1996, relevant tax law and other employment law obligations)
- Where processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or exercise of official authority vested in the Governing Body (e.g. education functions associated with running a school).

In addition, concerning any special category data

- Where processing is necessary for the purposes of carrying out obligations and exercising rights of the school or staff in the field of employment
- Where processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest (e.g. connected to the education functions associated with running a school)
- Where processing is necessary for the purposes of preventive or occupational medicine (e.g. where occupational health advice is sought)

Consent

In some circumstances, we may ask you for explicit consent to enable us to process your data. However, this will normally only be where there is no other legal basis for us to process this information. Where we rely on consent, you may withdraw your consent at any time.

Collecting workforce information

We collect personal information via:

- application forms
- appointment forms
- pension forms
- occupational health questionnaire
- DBS applications
- annual data checking forms

Workforce data is essential for the school's / local authority's operational use. Whilst the majority of personal information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is requested on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with UK GDPR, we will inform you at the point of collection, whether you are required to provide certain information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Storing workforce information

We will retain and dispose of your personal information in accordance with the Information and Records Management Society's toolkit for schools.

Who we share workforce information with

We routinely share this information with:

- our local authority
- the Department for Education (DfE)
- HM Revenues and Customs
- Teachers' Pensions
- Local Government Pension Service
- Teacher training providers
- future employers
- Occupational Health

Why we share school workforce information

We do not share information about our workforce members with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Local authority

We are required to share information about our workforce members with our local authority (LA) under section 5 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (England) Regulations 2007 and amendments.

Department for Education

We are required to share information about our school employees with the Department for Education (DfE) under section 5 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (England) Regulations 2007 and amendments.

All data is transferred securely and held by DfE under a combination of software and hardware controls which meet the current government security policy framework.

For more information, please see 'How Government uses your data' section.

Requesting access to your personal data

Under data protection legislation, you have the right to request access to information about you that we hold. To make a request for your personal information, contact Mrs A Woodhall , email: dpo@friern.barnet.sch.uk

You also have the right to:

- to ask us for access to information about you that we hold
- to have your personal data rectified, if it is inaccurate or incomplete
- to request the deletion or removal of personal data where there is no compelling reason for its continued processing
- to restrict our processing of your personal data (i.e. permitting its storage but no further processing)
- to object to direct marketing (including profiling) and processing for the purposes of scientific/historical research and statistics
- not to be subject to decisions based purely on automated processing where it produces a legal or similarly significant effect on you

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we ask that you raise your concern with us in the first instance. Alternatively, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>

For further information on how to request access to personal information held centrally by DfE, please see the 'How Government uses your data' section of this notice.

Withdrawal of consent and the right to lodge a complaint

Where we are processing your personal data with your consent, you have the right to withdraw that consent. If you change your mind, or you are unhappy with our use of your personal data, please let us know by contacting Mrs A Woodhall, email: dpo@friern.barnet.sch.uk

Last updated

We may need to update this privacy notice periodically so we recommend that you revisit this information from time to time. This version was last updated on 20 September 2023

Contact

If you would like to discuss anything in this privacy notice, please contact: Mrs A Woodhall, email: dpo@friern.barnet.sch.uk

How government uses your data

The workforce data that we lawfully share with the DfE through data collections:

- informs departmental policy on pay and the monitoring of the effectiveness and diversity of the school workforce
- links to school funding and expenditure
- supports 'longer term' research and monitoring of educational policy

Sharing by the department for education (DfE)

The DfE may share information about school employees with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children or the effective deployment of school staff in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

The Department has robust processes in place to ensure that the confidentiality of personal data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access to it and its use. Decisions on whether DfE releases personal data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data
- the purpose for which it is required
- the level and sensitivity of data requested; and
- the arrangements in place to securely store and handle the data

To be granted access to school workforce information, organisations must comply with its strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.

How to find out what personal information DfE hold about you

Under the terms of the Data Protection Act 2018, you're entitled to ask the Department:

- if they are processing your personal data
- for a description of the data they hold about you
- the reasons they're holding it and any recipient it may be disclosed to
- for a copy of your personal data and any details of its source

If you want to see the personal data held about you by the Department, you should make a 'subject access request'. Further information on how to do this can be found within the Department's personal information charter that is published at the address below:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/department-for-education/about/personal-information-charter>

To contact the department: <https://www.gov.uk/contact-dfe>